As a service to our patient, Patricia Gallo L.A.c will submit charges for medical treatment to the patient's insurance company. However, the patient is primarily responsible for paying any and all medical expenses incurred at this office.

We may attempt to verify in advance that the patient's insurance company will pay for the specific medical procedures. Occasionally, even though coverage was verified before medical services were provided, the insurance company denies the claim. If the insurance company denies payment or will not pay a portion of the medical bill, the patient is responsible for payment of the account balance. Likewise, if the patient has not met his/her deductible under a given insurance plan, the patient will be responsible for the amount of the deductible, in addition to whatever amounts the insurance does not pay.

I agree to be responsible for payment of services in the event my insurance company doesn't agree to pay for these services. Not signing this document does not release your responsibility of payment.

I authorize my card on file to be charged each month (Co Pays/Co Insurance), including any fees that may apply, and wave my right to charge back against the merchant any monthly charges, dues or fees for the duration of your treatments.

Risks, Possible Side Effects and Healing Response

I understand that acupuncture may result in certain side effects, including local bruising, slight bleeding, fainting, temporary pain and discomfort, and temporary aggravation of symptoms existing prior to treatment. Generally, the healing response will subside within 72 hours. It is the responsibility of the patient to inform the practitioner of any treatment reactions as soon as possible.

Other Professional Competencies

I am aware of other bodywork modalities and understand that I have consented to the specific service of acupuncture as noted above. I understand that should I need such additional care that my practitioner may offer referrals to a separately licensed professional.

Information Consent for Acupuncture Treatment and Care

I hereby request and consent to the performance of acupuncture treatment and other complementary medicine procedures including various modes of physio-therapy on me (or on the patient named below, for whom I am legally responsible) by Patricia Gallo L.Ac

I understand that the methods of treatment may include, but not limited to: acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, moving cupping, electrical stimulation, Tui-Na (Chinese Massage), Chinese or Western herbal medicine, supplement recommendations, and nutritional counselling.

Acupuncture attempts to normalize physiological functions, to modify the perception of pain, and to treat certain diseases or dysfunctions of the body. I have been informed that acupuncture is a safe method of treatment, but occasionally there may be some bruising or tingling near the needling sites that last a few days. There have been very rare instances reported of fainting, infection and scarring. There have been extremely rare instances reported of spontaneous miscarriages and pneumothorax. There may be some bruising after cupping.

The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plants, animals and mineral sources) that have been recommended are traditionally considered safe in the practice of Chinese Medicine. I understand that some herbs may be inappropriate during pregnancy. If I experience and gastrointestinal upset or allergic reactions to the herbs, I will inform the acupuncturist.

I do not expect the acupuncturist to be able to anticipate and explain all risks and complications. I wish to rely on the acupuncturist to exercise judgment during the course of procedure, which the acupuncturist feels at the time, based upon the facts then and known, is in my best interests.

I understand the clinical and administrative staff may review my medical records and lab reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my consent. I Have read, or have had an opportunity to ask questions about its content.

I understand my patient records and patient information will be kept confidential and shred only when necessary to provide care and services, or by my authorization, or when required or permitted by law.

By signing below, I agree to the above- named procedures. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.
